 FEBRUARY 2017

WORSHIP SCHEDULE

February 5th -- "We Can't Keep Quiet", Guest Speaker, Lisa Perry-Wood, "First they came for the Socialists and I did not speak out...Then they came for me and there was no one left to speak for me." At this time in our country's history, we are called, more than ever, to speak up for the marginalized. Tens of thousands of voices were heard at the Women's marches two weeks ago, but we can't go quiet again. How will you let your voice be heard?

February 12th-- "Practically Imperfect", Reverend Jill Cowie -- "Perfectionism is one of the scariest words I know", says spiritual writer Kathleen Norris. She goes on to say, "It is a marked characteristic of our American culture where we try hard to do the best we can yet always fall short of some imaginary, usually unattainable standard." Our Unitarian Universalist ancestors viewed perfectionism as growth. Come explore how we can live into their vision and of being practically imperfect.

February 19th - Past PFC member returns with special sermon, "Raising Transgender Children at First Parish - Our Shared History." With the sustaining support of the FPC community and her UU faith, a mother guides her transgender children to wholeness in the first years of the new millennium. Maureen McNamara Mulhern, former FPC member, social worker and transgender rights activist, joins the Welcoming Congregation Comm. in the pulpit for this very special service.

February 26th -- "Families of the Heart", Reverend Jill Cowie -- A colleague asked me the other day "has kinship ever saved you?" In answering, I realized I have two families, the "vertical family" to which I was born and a "horizontal one," a kinship with others based on an inherent sense of self not shared with my vertical family. Understanding our identity in our first family says psychologist Andrew Solomon helps us go "where the spirit beckons" towards families of the heart.

If prayer would do it

I'd pray.

If reading esteemed thinkers would do it

I'd be halfway through the Patriarchs.

If discourse would do it

I'd be sitting with His Holiness every moment he was free.

If contemplation would do it

I'd have translated the Periodic Table to hermit poems, converting matter to spirit.

If even fighting would do it

I'd already be a blackbelt.

If anything other than love could do it

I've done it already

Green Shoots

You may think January is too early for green shoots, but we have been seeing some in the RE program for children and youth. Last year we reported 36 children and youth to the Unitarian Universalist Association annual census of congregations. This year we will be reporting 51. It has been really encouraging that almost every week since Thanksgiving we have had visiting families and many folks are choosing to stick around and really check us out. I'm not entirely sure who we have to thank for this uptick in visitors (maybe Donald Trump?) but I am grateful and glad it is happening. But, I do know that new folks are not here just to meet me or the RE teachers. They are here looking for a church community and that means all of you. So, here are some things you can do to help us grow the RE program and build a strong foundation for the church's future:

- If you see someone who seems unsure about where they should be for the service or for RE on Sunday mornings, please speak to them, offer to show them where to go.
- If you see someone (anyone!) standing alone at coffee hour, go up and introduce yourself.
- If someone asks about the church or our programs, remind them of our website www.uudux.org where there is lots of detailed information. We also have pamphlets near both entrances to the sanctuary.
- Take a moment to think about what you would want if you were new and resolve to do that for any new folks you see.

I know we are New Englanders and we take pride in respecting peoples' privacy, but if people are looking for community, they are not going to find it if we don't reach out.

And there is one more easy thing you can do to support the church's young people. Come downstairs some Sunday and look around. Think about what our facilities would look like to a new family. Our RE space is beloved and well used, but let's be honest here, it has seen better days. There are plans being worked on for a refresh - a coat of paint, new ceilings and doors, etc. This isn't about our space competing with kiddie gyms and fancy playgrounds. It is about making a concrete statement that the people downstairs are just as important to the church as the people upstairs in our lovely assembly hall. Please, won't you help us tend and cultivate these new, green shoots?

Ruth Owen, Interim Director of Religious Education

Open Minds Social Justice Speaker Series off to a successful start!

Our FPC Speaker Series recently made the front page of the Duxbury Clipper, and the first event featuring the Massachusetts Bail Fund drew 36 interested participants from the church and the wider community.

You are invited the next event in the series: Trans 101: Transgender Identities and Experience

Why should the average person know or care about the experiences of transgender individuals? What are the social justice issues involved? Come on Friday, February 24th at 7:30 to hear a panel of speakers share their personal stories, provide information and speak to the relevance of transgender issues for our community. Admission is free, the vibe is informal, refreshments are provided, and all are welcome.

Share the Plate

Our Share the Plate collection in January produced more than $1800 for the Massachusetts Bail Fund. On February 12th we will give our collection to a local grass roots organization: the Pembroke Soup Connection. Our Share the Plate ministry is one way we work to transform our community and our world.

Box Project Thank You

Thanks to Carol and Peter Nappellio, the shed is clean and ready for donations to the Box Project. They cleared the shed out, organized and numbered the tables. They went through bins of donated clothing and sorted them neatly by size and sex. They looked for, found and bagged many of the clothes needed for this month's delivery to Head Start.

We are fortunate to have some perfect donated clothing from members of the congregation. We also receive some funds from contributors with which we buy clothes. We have been given many clothes from the Duxbury Thrift Shop, clothes that were past their consignment dates. This way, with the help of so many, we are able to give clothing that the children and adults need. For instance, this month six little boys needed jeans, sweaters, and sweatshirts. We were able to give each boy just what was needed.

*Thanks to you all,
Carrie Meier, Box Project Coordinator*

Note from the Fellowship Committee

We want to thank all those you have participated in bringing food for Sunday Coffee hour. Our new plan of assigning Sunday alphabetically has been very extremely successful.

We are nearing the end of the alphabet so will be starting over soon. To ensure fairness we will pick up next fall where we left off in the spring. So if you have to do two coffee hours this year you will most likely only have one assignment next year.

The Power of Community, The Spirit of Giving

The annual pledge drive for all Members and Friends of First Parish Church will take place next month. Our church relies on the generosity of each of us, expressed in many forms - donations to the plate offering at Sunday worship... participation in the leadership and committees that provide opportunities for engagement, fun, and education... helping teach the children in church school... and, of course, our delightful fairs.

That being said, pledging is the dominant factor in the financial health of the congregation. Pledges account for most of our budget and are, in fact, a vital part of the budgeting process for the coming year. Our theme: The Power of Community, The Spirit of Giving calls your attention to the blessings we enjoy from practicing generosity combined with the notion that we are strongest when acting in unity. We are a stronger congregation when we all give, because we ALL give.

Your Stewardship Committee is planning to focus on online pledging again this year. It's a fast and easy process. To those who have pledged in previous years, we ask that you consider the amount of your pledge. While it's easy to renew your pledge at the same amount, please remember that costs tend to rise over time: your pledge simply doesn't go as far as it did last year or the year before.

If you are new to pledging, or new to First Parish, we hope to schedule a time to meet with a stewardship visitor, so that you can discuss the importance of this church and its community in your life and decide on an amount that feels appropriate and generous.

Committee Chairs

Attention all Committee Chairs and Vice Chairs:
Please Come to the Annual Social at Cedar Hill
Friday March 10, 7-9pm.

Mark your calendars for our annual gathering at Cedar Hill for food, fellowship, and a chance to preview some of the upcoming projects proposed for First Parish. This is always a fun evening and an opportunity for the governing board to thank you all for your hard work throughout the year. We hope you can make it and we look forward to seeing you and your significant other on Friday, March 10th!

Please RSVP to your liaison.

February is Small Group Sign-Up Month

During the month of February, all members and friends in the congregation will have the opportunity to sign-up and/or re-commit to Small Groups.

So what is Small Group you ask? Small Groups are intentional lay-led groups that deepen and expand the ministry of a congregation. Small means a group of 6-10 people, selected at random, or sometimes over a specific interest, with a focus on spirituality and ministry. The groups meet either once or twice a month, and the act of coming together over a period of time provides the act of caring for or being present for one another. We come together with the process of deep listening, over topics that challenge us to grow spiritually while helping the church itself grow in numbers, generosity and connection. There is so much more to know - come visit us at our table in the Harvey Assembly Hall after service in February or contact any member of the Steering Committee! Maybe THIS is the year to join a group?

Also, if you feel you need to take some time off from Small Groups, or if your schedule has changed and you would like to be placed in a group that meets at a different time, this is the month to do it! Just visit us at the Small Group sign-up table after church any Sunday during the month. Or contact one of the Steering Committee members. We are David Murphy, Mary Langner, Cindy Ladd Fiorini, Gina Angell and Rev. Catherine Cullen.

Have You Signed The Membership Book?

Invitation to become a member of First Parish Church. If First Parish feels like your church home and you have not as yet become an “official” member by signing our historic Membership Book, please know that you may do so while our minister, Catherine Cullen, is on sabbatical. You may call the church office and make an appointment with Lenore, our church administrator, and/or arrange a meeting with a Membership Committee member. When Catherine returns from sabbatical, she will witness your signature.

Singer/Songwriter Jay Psaros
Featured performer

This month's featured performer, Boston based Singer/Songwriter Jay Psaros, writes songs. In fact, he writes lots of songs. Psaros is currently celebrating the release of his fourth studio release, a self titled collection of ten songs ranging from mellow crooners to roots rockers. Psaros has been called a "storyteller of precision," a "master guitar player," and a musical "painter of beautiful, rolling images." His musical versatility has allowed him to share the stage with a variety of international acts such as Eddie Money, Rick Springfield, The Mavericks, Donovan Frankenreiter, Boz Scaggs, Daughtry, The Los Lonely Boys, Tower of Power, The Little River Band, Ziggy Marley, The Original Wailers and many more. It promises to be a great show and there will be delicious goodies too! Please join us and invite your friends.
